BURNS' NIGHT AT THE PHEASANT

The Pheasant was fully booked for a fantastic celebration at the end of January (just after the February issue of this newsletter had gone to print, hence it being reported now). The haggis was brought out and paraded through the bar, heralded by a piper. We were then regaled with stories about Robbie Burns and extracts from his poetry, before the highlight of the performance - the addressing of the haggis - 'great chieftain o' the pudding race' - and cutting it with the ceremonial dagger. We were all served an excellent three course meal with a tot of whisky for everyone.

Well done the Pheasant!
